

Ner Israel Rabbinical College Annual Campus Security Report September 26, 2023

Current Campus Policies

Mr. David Friedman, our Facilities Manager is the designated security officer. In case of serious crime in progress, loss, unauthorized intrusion, or any other emergency - call 911. This number can be reached from any pay phone within the campus. If you are using a mobile phone, please dial 911. Once 911 is called the calling number and address are automatically transmitted to the police. If you do not talk or if you hang up a police car will be dispatched to ascertain the location of the emergency.

For any security and/or safety concerns David Friedman can be reached by cell phone 443-803-8596 or dfriedman@nirc.edu. Additionally, Yehuda Friedman (Assistant Facilities Manager, 443-825-2603 or yfriedman@nirc.edu) and Rabbi Boruch Neuberger (President, 443-604-2425 or byn@nirc.edu) may also be reached in case of a security and/or safety concern.

Should there be a situation that requires a timely warning, a message will be sent out via text and/or robocalls to all students and/or staff apprising them of the current situation. These decisions will be made by the school administration on a case-by-case basis. This system will also be used to make timely warning reports to members of the campus community about

Ner Israel is committed to a safe and healthy campus. Confidential reports may be made to any of the above individuals as well. With your permission, a report will be drawn up with the details of the incident without revealing your identity. If you wish to keep the matter confidential, while taking steps to ensure the safety of yourself and others, you may call or email a report. All reports are accepted. Additionally, one can write the report and leave it in the administrative building.

Annually all statistics will be compiled by the financial aid office and then submitted to the Department of Education. Afterwards they will be added to the annual report and posted on the College's website.

Campus Facilities

Different buildings on our campus have different facilities is restricted to staff and school administration. Visitors are allowed in the study hall offices first. Our gates are closed at night, and are manned by an unarmed security guard who checks each visitor and confirms that it should be safe to enter. The College's policy is that all residential facility exterior doors are automatically locked. All maintenance staff working in the dormitory areas are expected to lock dormitory room doors and exterior doors after they have completed their work. Our dormitories are controlled by keycard access control and/or security locks. Most of our other buildings are under CCTV. Additionally there are camera and license plate readers at each entrance to the campus. The video is stored for a minimum of 4 weeks to be able to roll back the information should it be needed for security purposes.

Local Law Enforcement

Ner Israel has a working relationship with the Baltimore County Police Department. We are located in Precinct 4. They are located at 15 Mifflin Mill Road, Baltimore, Maryland 21208. Their phone number is: 410-887-1279 and their fax: 410-887-1278. The Precinct 4 commanding officer is Captain Andrea Bylen. No employee of Ner Israel is authorized to speak on behalf of Ner Israel. Ner Israel does not have any written agreements with any local law enforcement. Ner Israel will report any crimes that require a police report and will encourage and assist anyone that needs to do so. Pastoral counselors on campus and when they deem appropriate, will inform persons that they report crimes on a confidential basis. Should any of our students be involved in a crime, even at an off-campus location, the police will inform us of the actions we are required to take.

Programs

Annually all students are informed by the Head dorm counselor of the various security programs taken by the college. Additionally, this discussion will cover other topics regarding Title IX domestic violence, sexual assault and stalking. Employees are also provided with this information. All students and staff have constant access to all our security and emergency procedures and are expected to review this material. This discussion also deals with crime prevention and how to protect yourself from a crime.

Alcohol & Illegal Drugs

All students at the beginning of the year that all state underage drinking laws will be enforced. Drug use.

Title IX

Policy regarding Title IX - domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking:

Sec. 1: Policy statement: The College is fully committed to maintaining a safe and secure environment for all students and employees, and maintaining an environment where all students are granted equal access to education based on the fe

Amendments and subsequent revisions. The latest regulatory update was published as a Final Rule in the Federal Register on 5/19/2020 is effective on August 14, 2020. Accordingly, the school adheres to a strict no-tolerance policy to prevent physical or emotional attacks or offenses of any type; including dating violence, domestic violence, sexual assault, and stalking, as well as harassment, or intimidation in any type or form. Sexual harassment, including sexual assault, dating violence, domestic violence, and stalking, is unlawful discrimination on the basis of sex. The College's policy is to respond promptly and effectively regarding any incident of sexual violence or sexual misconduct in accordance with the Title IX Final Rule. Domestic Violence is defined as the occurrence of one or more of the following criminal offenses upon a person protected under the Prevention of Domestic Violence Act of 1990: Homicide, Assault, Terroristic threats, Kidnapping, Criminal Restraint, False Imprisonment, Sexual Assault, Criminal Contact, Lewdness, Criminal Mischief, Burglary, Criminal Trespass, Harassment, Stalking.

The College takes as a serious responsibility its obligation to address all incidents of sexual misconduct, violence and offensive or inappropriate demeanor that take place in the school's educational program or activity. Behavior that falls into the following three categories will be addressed in this policy:

- Quid pro quo harassment by a school's employee
- Unwelcome conduct that a reasonable person would find so severe, persistent or pervasive that it creates an intimidating, hostile, or abusive educational environment
- Instance of sexual assault (as defined in the Clery Act), including dating violence, domestic violence, or stalking as defined in the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA)

The College has designated Rabbi Neuberger as the Title IX Coordinator. Rabbi Neuberger will be responsible to ensure that the initial complaint and grievance process is carried out in accordance with the protocol set forth in this policy. A key principle throughout this policy is to ensure the safety and privacy of all parties. Any student who is the victim of sexual misconduct or any person, employee or student who has witnessed sexual misconduct may report the incident to the Title IX Coordinator. All students, staff as well as applicants for admission and employment are formally notified below of the Title IX Coordinator's name and contact information. <https://www.college.edu/content/uploads/2020/08/Title-IX.pdf>

Sec. 2: Education programs to promote awareness and prevention: The College offers a primary prevention and awareness program to all incoming students, students, and new and current employees, including faculty. Staff members are also required to attend the program.

going as needed. The program includes: 1. An in-person discussion covering the topics for new students. For employees each division head does the in-person discussion with them. 2. Lectures on dating and related issues for students are held periodically throughout the semester. Times are posted in College in advance of the lecture. 3. The College's comprehensive shalom bayis and chassanim program. Should one become a chosson, please reach out to Rabbi Tzvi Krakauer at 443-257-3572. 4. One-on-one consultations concerning marriage and shalom bayis are available to all students and employees with both Rabbi Krakauer and Rabbi Shrago Neuberger 410-409-1878.

Sec. 3: Procedures the College will follow: In the case of a reported alleged offense or attack as described above in Sec. 1, the institution reserves the right to request that the perpetrator leave the institution until such time as a disciplinary hearing can take place. The disciplinary hearing is described in Sec. 6 below, and will be based on the clear and convincing standard of evidence.

Sec. 4: Possible sanctions may include suspension from the campus, expulsion from the campus, and a requirement that the perpetrator leave the campus. The College is committed to a safe campus environment and will make alternative academic, living, transportation and/or working accommodations if requested by the victim, and if such accommodations are reasonably available, regardless of whether the victim chooses to report the offense to campus disciplinary committees and/or law enforcement. In the event that a victim obtains an order of protection, no contact order, restraining order, or similar lawful order against another student or employee, the College will work with the victim to arrange accommodations in academic and housing arrangements as necessary.

Sec. 5: Procedures victims should follow: In the event of an attack, caution should be exercised so as not to impede the preservation and collection of evidence which may be necessary as proof of a crime. It is the responsibility of the victim to report the attack to the police as soon as possible. It should be noted that time is a critical factor with regard to accurate evidence collection, so prompt reporting to police is advised. If you are aware of an attack in progress, please contact the authorities immediately. The nearest police station is located at 15 Milford Mill Road, Baltimore, MD 21113, and their phone number is: 410-887-1279. Victims should report an attack to the police and either Rabbi Boruch Neuberger or David Friedman, at the contact information provided above. If a student does not feel comfortable contacting the police directly, or would like the assistance of the College's staff in contacting the police, please contact David Friedman. Victims should be aware that if a student makes a choice, their other rights under this policy and the Clery Act will still be protected. Either Rabbi Boruch Neuberger or David Friedman will make any necessary arrangements and assistance with any civil protections. In the event that a victim obtains an order of protection, no contact order, restraining order, or similar lawful order against another student or employee, the College will work with the victim to arrange accommodations in academic and housing arrangements as necessary. If a student or employee reports a crime, their rights under this policy and the Clery Act will be provided in writing.

10: Employee Policy: Any employee with a complaint regarding sexual harassment, domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault and stalking or harassment, should immediately contact the Department of Human Resources. Any supervisor or manager who becomes aware of conduct or an allegation of harassment, discrimination or retaliation, must contact the Department of Human Resources immediately. The Department of Human Resources will be responsible for the investigation and resolution of the complaint.

Sec. 11: Written Explanation: Any student or employee who reports to the College that the student or employee has been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, whether the offense occurred on or off campus, shall receive a written explanation of the College's policy and the student or employee's options.

Sec. 12: Registered Offenders List: In accordance with the CSCP Act of 2003, institutions of higher education are required to advise the campus community where they can obtain a list of registered offenders provided by the State. It also requires offenders to provide notice of each institution of higher education in that State where they are currently enrolled or are a student. In the State of MD the list is located online at <https://dpscs.maryland.gov/onlineservs/socem/default.shtml>. Ner Israel is located in Baltimore county and zip code 21208.

Screening Questions

Please answer these questions carefully. The answers you provide will determine which screens you will be asked to complete for this data collection.

1. Does your institution provide On-Campus Student Housing Facilities?

- No.
- Yes. (If Yes, please provide the number of On-Campus Student Housing Facilities for each facility.)

Number of On-Campus Student Housing Facilities Last Year

2. Does your institution have any noncampus buildings or properties?

- Yes
- No

3. Have you combined statistics that you received from your institution statistics with statistics that you received from local and state law enforcement agencies to provide the data you received from the local and state police separately.

- Yes. Local and/or state law enforcement agencies provided us with statistics that we are combining with statistics collected by our institution.
- No. we are not combining the statistics because we cannot determine whether the statistics we obtained from local and/or state law enforcement agencies are for on-campus incidents or public property incidents.
- Not available. We cannot determine if the statistics we obtained from local and/or state law enforcement agencies are for on-campus incidents or public property incidents.
- Not available. We made a good-faith effort to obtain statistics from local and/or state law enforcement agencies, but they do not comply with our request.
